CHRISTMAS ORATORIO

The joy and beauty of Christmas is offered again by the sixth annual presentation of Johann Sebastian Bach's Christmas Oratorio by the Monterey Peninsula Choral Society assisted by the Monterey County Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Jan de Jong. This year the Oratorio will be performed at Sunset Auditorium on Sunday, December 17 at 8 p.m.

Soloists appearing with the chorus and chamber orchestra are Leona Gordon, soprano, and Marvin Klebe, bass, both familiar artists to Peninsula audiences; Arlene White, contralto, who will be singing here for the first time, and Patrick Dougherty, tenor, who has sung here previously in the Bach Festival.

WEATHER

Clear but Cold—lows into the 20s, highs in the 50s but it will become about 10 degrees warmer as the week progresses.

A CHRISTMAS CAROL tableau, realistically done by Edythe Plamondon of Carmel based on Charles Dickens' classic, is on display at the Harrison Memorial Library. See story on Page 9.

MPC Christmas Concert Tonight

The Monterey Peninsula College Chorus will present MPC's 18th annual Christmas concert tonight at 8:30 in the college music hall. The public is invited to attend without charge.

Highlight of the chorus' presentation will be a performance of Benjamin Britten's "A Ceremony of Carols."

Sunset Center Books Christmas Entertainment

Sixty singers, seven bellringers, and six instrumentalists will support a cast of eight high school students from Lamar High School, Houston, Texas in their interpretation of "Amahl and the Night Visitors." The program will be staged at the Sunset Theatre on Wednesday, Dec. 20. No charge.

Commissioned by NBC television some 15 years ago, this humorous, yet warm story of a crippled boy who had a most unusual gift for the Christ Child has become a classic.

Following the intermission, a program has been arranged of a more general nature. In addition to choral numbers, a group of selections will be played by the Tali Shiloha bellringers, a group of girls who play 25 bells that were cast by hand at the foundry of Petit and Fritsen in Holland.

The Chorus has sung within recent years atRockefeller Center; for the Pageant for Peace on the White House lawn, and at the Capitol in Washington, D.C.; at Alexandria, Reston, and Williamsburg, Virginia, and at the Air Force Academy as well as at the Salt Lake City Tabernacle.

MY BIRTHDAY COMES ON CHRISTMAS will be sung by (L-R) Pixie Brewster, Cindy Foster and Sue McCurdy at the Christmas Capers sponsored by the Carmel Youth Center. See Pages 4 and 5 for full story.

Theatre Review

ROMEO AND JULIET. Dame Margot Fonteyn is acknowledged throughout the world as the greatest ballerina dancing today, in direct line of succession from balletic immortals like Pavlova and Ulanova. She reaches a new high in her career in Joseph Levine's film presentation in color of the Royal ballet in their acclaimed new version of the Prokofiev ballet, Romeo and Juliet. Miss Fonteyn is generally considered as the first great ballerina to be produced by the English school.

THE LAST SAFARI. Stewart Granger is cast as an embittered white hunter dehas killed a friend of Granbull Elephant which in turn had killed a friend of Granger's. He is, however, bugged by a rude young American who insists on going with him on the adventure. Filmed in Kenya.

"THE TAMING OF THE SHREW", a comedy by Shakespeare, has had audiences laughing for almost 400 years. The shrew is evil-tempered Katharina. In the motion picture version, Elizabeth Taylor is the shrew. And the man who tames her, Petruchio, is played by Richard Burton.

DR. ZHIVAGO. The screen version of Pasternak's novel, has a script by Robert Bolt but while beautiful and long, it lacks dramatic vitality. Also prominent in this romantic drama, set before backRground of the Russian revolution are Ralph Richardson and Ron Steiger. Many of the scenes are visually breathtaking.

WAR GAMES. It may be the most important film ever made. We are always being told a work of art cannot change the course of history. This one might. It's fascinating . . . graphic . . . horrifying . . . fearful and forceful. Eminently worth seeing. The cast is exceptionally fine.

Sierra Club Shows Films

Ventana Chapter of the Sierra Club announces a meeting to be held Tuesday, December 19 at 7:30 p.m. in Brey Hall of the Carmel High School where two Sierra Club films will be shown.

The first "Two Yosemites" contrasts the Hetch Hetchy reservoir with beauty which might have been saved. The second, "Wasted Woods" shows the effects of "cut and get out" logging practices. Public is invited.

Senior Scholarship Award Established

Marcia Gambrell Hovick, founder and director of the Children's Theatre Classes, sponsored by the Community Theatre of Monterey Peninsula, announces the creation of a Senior (high school) Scholarship Award, to be known as the Sally Anne Louise Elstob Award.

The scholarship is in memory of Sally Elstob, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winston Elstob of Pacific Grove, granddaughter of the Frederick Elstobs of Carmel and Mrs. Katherine Coxeter of Peaslake, Surrey, England, who flew from London last week to be with the family in Pacific Grove.

Sally, aged 16, died November 20, fatally injured in a motorcycle—automobile collision. A junior at Pacific Grove High School, Sally was a leader in campus activities for world peace, racial and religious tolerance. An enthusiastic member of the school's drama class, she excelled in her knowledge of literature of the theatre.

Try-outs for "Generation"

The Studio Theatre, Dolores Street, Carmel, will hold try-outs Sunday at 3 p.m. to select a cast for the William Goodhart comedy "Generation," its next production after "Mary, Mary." The three principal roles call for a young man and woman in their twenties to portray a rebellious newlywed couple and a man of the right age to play the girl's somewhat conventional father. Henry Fonda starred in the latter part in the Broadway production a few seasons ago.

Three additional men are needed, ranging in age up to fifty, to appear as an obstetrician, a public relations man and a magazine editor, each of whom is significant in the development of the modern and amusing plot.

According to director Don Osborn, rehearsals will begin after Christmas with opening scheduled for early February. Those interested may call Osborn at 624-1661 for further information or to arrange an alternative try-out date if Sunday afternoon is inconvenient.

"Romeo and Juliet"

Through next Tuesday Dame Margot Fonteyn, Rudolf Nureyev and the full Royal Ballet company may be seen on the screen at Carmel's Village Theatre in Prokofief's "Romeo and Juliet." The Carmel Museum of Art is sponsoring performances of the color film at 7 and 9:30 p.m. each evening with matinees on Saturday at 2 p.m. and on Sunday at 2 and 4:30 p.m. Tickets may be obtained at the museum on Dolores north of 7th in the former Wells Fargo Bank building through Saturday from 10 a.m.-4 p.m., also on Tuesday.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE RADIO

"What Are We Expecting?" is the title of the next program on the Christian Science radio series "The Bible Speaks to You" to be heard over radio stations heard Sunday over radio stations KGO at 7:30, KRML at 7:45 and KDON at 8:45. This program will discuss the need to question "What Are We Expecting?" because what we expect plays such a big part in what we experience.

"Winnie The Pooh"

"Winnie the Pooh" the A. A. Milne classic fantasy and perennial children's favorite play will be presented at the White Oaks Theatre in Carmel Valley on Friday, December, 22nd at 2:00 p.m. by the theatre's Touring Repertory Company. There will be a "sing-in" of traditional Christmas carols prior to the performance and a party for the children afterwards including the introduction of the entire cast in costume and a treat for each child.

This performance is for children only and there will be excellent supervision for even the smallest child by the sponsors of the play, White Oaks Theatre Guild members. Pick up your children promptly at 4:00 p.m. but you can still have a two hour shopping afternoon on your own.

Tickets are only $.50 and can be purchased at the General Store in Carmel Valley, Steinmetz Pharmacy at the Mid-Valley Shopping Center, the Central Box Office at Sixth and Dolores in Carmel and the Deb and Heir Shop in the new Del Monte Center.

"Mary, Mary"

OPENS AT STUDIO

"Mary, Mary" opens Friday, December 22, at the Studio Theatre - Restaurant in Carmel, following the close of "The Odd Couple" this Sunday. In racking up 1572 New York performances, the Jean Kerr comedy of marital turbulence established a record surpassed by ony four other non-musicals in Broadway history.

After performances December 22 and 23, "Mary, Mary" will resume at the Studio on Tuesday, December 26, and play through the 31st. Thereafter it will run Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights until the end of January. The production is directed by Don Osborn. Daisy Bostick Celebrates Birthday

Daisy Bostick celebrated her 85th birthday last week with many old friends bringing her plants and flowers. She now lives on Guadalupe near Valley Way.

Daisy, we were surprised to learn, at one time had half interest in The Pine Cone with Bill Overstreet, the founder. Mr. Overstreet's wife, Kitty, served as bookkeeper, and they had a dog named Brownie, she said. Kitty's brother was Fred Bechdolt, no longer living, and she had a daughter with two sons who live in Carmel now. Fred, incidentally had a dog named Rags. Does anybody remember him?

Fred Bechdolt and Jimmy Holper, she said, used to get together and write crime stories. 9009 was the name of a novel by Bechdolt based on a story gleaned from a visit to a penitentiary.

Daisy loaned us one of her old notebooks in which she saved some of the many articles she wrote about early days of Carmel. Perhaps we can find out what happened to some of the people mentioned in them.

Christmas Creations

Hostesses for the Christmas Creations preview party at the Mark Thomas last week which benefited the Monterey Peninsula Museum of Art looked exceptionally charming in their long dresses as they flitted about with baskets over their arms.

Mrs. George McMahon, general chairman, wore an ecru lace blouse from Italy, a long gold velvet skirt which she made herself, and red sash and slippers.

Mrs. John Julien, also of Pebble Beach, wore a fascinating, long white dress with circular cutouts at her chest and around the hem containing flat translucent shells decorated like tree ornaments. Designed by Lilli, the decorations for the dress may be changed for Valentine's day, Mrs. Julien pointed out.

Mrs. Saul (Mimi) Weingarten, who won a third with her fanciful dwarfs creation, was floating about in a black and white sea print dress lands by her brother. The sent her from the Virgin Isstole was hand sewn with tiny sequins.

There were many men present too, handsome Jay Clancy of Carmel, for one, distinguished James M. R. Glaser of Pebble Beach, and tall and greying Hugh Bayless, Carmel's City Clerk. Many husbands were on hand to act as hosts, among them Tom Hudson, refilling champagne glasses.

Mrs. Robert Robertson, there with her husband Dr. Robertson, wore a striking yellow jersey minidress with matching hose and shoes. Mrs. Russell Longstreth of Carmel wore her full length courmeline mink coat.

Carole Moran, wife of Malcolm Moran, one of the judges, looked very childlike with her loose pigtails and miniskirt. Mrs. Julian von Meier, of City Council, brought her daughter Karen.

Women's Democratic Club Elects 1968 Officers

The Carmel Women's Democratic Club met November 30 at the La Playa Hotel for the annual election of officers.

Mrs. Edgar Viall, nominating chairman, announced the new slate. Mrs. John Robotti was chosen president, Mrs. Robert Coxe, first vice-president, Mrs. Charles Davis, second vice-president, Mrs. Sherman Smith, recording secretary, Mrs. Jonathan Beene, corresponding secretary, and Miss Ruth Dodds, convention chairman.

CHRISTMAS CREATIONS SPECTACULAR EVENT

Marie Van Auken, photographer

To Barbara Tripp, decorations chairman, and to Mrs. George McMahon, general chairman, go special plaudits for creating a gorgeous setting for the Christmas Creations made by members of the Monterey Peninsula Museum of Art displayed at the Mark Thomas Inn last week.

An inverted decorated Christmas tree hung from the high ceiling formed a great chandelier from which wide streamers in orange and shocking pink reached the corners of the large room. Tables covered in alternating shades of the same colors held an amazing variety of clever, amusing or exquisitely beautiful Christmas decorations on sale to benefit the museum.

Overall sweepstakes prize was won by Doris Pritchard for her large plaster angels with ecstatic expressions and graceful attitudes.

Second prize for a waxy color collage was won by Mrs. Steven Crouch, but first went to Mrs. Georgianna Radke for her pyramid of inverted brandy glasses which she artfully combined with gold beads and small plaster angels.

Anita Doud contributed several creations, one of them four demure maidens of felt in Christmas colors. A blue lithograph was done by William Stone for the occasion.

Children were well represented by delightful little things. Among those contributing were Ann Campbell, Kim Dormody, Paula Isakson, Mary Downey, Jean Marline, Kelly Arnold, Bruce Banfield, and the Weingarten boys, Larry, Steve, and David. The fifth grade of Marina Vista Schools had a display of Santas.

Judge for the event was Malcolm Moran. Steve Brown, curator of the museum on Lincoln, Mrs. Rutledge (Jackie) Bray, staff, and Mrs. William Arnold, president of the Monterey Peninsula Museum of Art were of course on hand to greet visitors as well as the many pretty ladies on the committee.

FIFTH ANNUAL RELIGIOUS ART SHOW

During the two weeks of January 22 through February 4, 1968, the ballroom of the Naval Postgraduate School will be transformed once again to an art gallery. The occasion is the Fifth Annual Religious Art Show sponsored by the Catholic Chapel Guild. The purpose is to stimulate interest in the better contemporary and traditional religious art. Whether you are an amateur or professional artist or a patron of the arts, you will be interested in this cultural art show.

This is an all-faiths, all denominational event. There will be $500 given in awards according to merit. For further information contact either Mrs. Dennis Jordan, 394-9681 or Mrs. Anthony Passarella, 372-6983.

FREE LANCE PHOTOGRAPHERS ASSOCIATION

Ralph R. Payton, PPA, western regional director for the National Free Lance Photographers Association announced that the first chapter for this organization is now officially opened on the Monterey Peninsula.

The chapter is known as "Skylight Chapter of NFLPA," with Walter Burns treasurer and Ewell E. Cole, assistant director, with the official address at P.O. Box 1524, Carmel.

William Stone Exhibit

Exhibit of the month at The Carmel Foundation Town House will be a showing by Mr. William F. Stone, Jr., a teacher at Carmel High School. He attended the School of Medical Illustration, Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston, where he was graduated as a certified medical illustrator. Before returning to school at San Jose State College, where he received his general secondary teaching credential, Mr. Stone worked as an illustrator at the University of California Medical Center and Stanford University. His art work has been shown at festivals and exhibits, his illustrations have been published in medical and scientific bulletins and he has illustrated a new biology textbook.

Anyone interested in seeing Mr. Stone's pictures may do so between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday, Lincoln at Eighth.

EDITORIAL . . .

AN EMPTY STAGE

At the beginning of the Forest Theatre summer season, Councilman Gunnar Norberg pressed home an appeal that an additional Forest Theatre directional sign be erected at Ocean Avenue and Junipero. So it was . . . right next to another Forest Theatre directional sign. Since there was considerable traffic anticipated for the summer season at the theatre, the existing sign seemed insignificant and many persons might not see the sign. The new one was to be temporary for the summer season. Now, four months later, the "temporary" sign remains.

It was brought out at the Cultural Commission meeting two weeks ago that it would take an act of the City Council to remove the sign. For three issues the Pine Cone has subtly planted the notion in the minds of the City Council that the sign should be taken down until next year . . . but evidently our voice went unheeded.

In Carmel our Planning Commission casts a cautious eye each time a new sign for a shop or building is presented to their design and review board. As a result Carmel signs have been kept unique and in good taste. But really, two signs within two feet of each other . . . advertising the same thing?

If we are to have this extra sign in Carmel, then let's paint over the lettering "Forest Theatre" and paint on "Sunset Center." If anything needs to be known, it's Sunset Center, not an empty stage. If we don't let people know about Sunset, there may be two empty stages.

Demand Identification

PG&E warns residents to beware of imposters claiming to be Pacific Gas and Electric Company representatives. To avoid possibility of assault or loss of property and money, demand to see identification cards which all PG&E employees carry. Do not depend on recognizing the uniform he is wearing.

NEW SOCIAL SECURITY OFFICE

The Pine Cone received a telegram from Bert Talcott announcing that the office space in a new building at the Southeast corner of Lighthouse and Drake Avenues in Monterey (2780 sq. ft.) has been leased for the Social Security Administration Office.

Young Republicans Endorse Wallace

Following the election of new officers for the Monterey Peninsula Young Republicans, a Resolution was adopted by a 3/4 majority present, including all of the new and past officers, to "endorse the candidacy of George Wallace and encourage him to run for the Presidency of the United States."

PARTY PLANS . . .

by Phyllis Jervey

Holiday Hospitality

From now on until twelfth night is hospitality time. It's the season for welcoming family and friends to share one's home and hearth. So let's begin thinking up tempting food and sparkling beverages that belong with happy hours. For an "open house" type of cocktail buffet do not attempt too many or too elaborate choices. Centerpieces good enough to eat are practical and one of our favorites is an

Edam Cheese Ball

Select a large Edam cheese, cut off a one-inch top. Remove as much cheese as possible from the inside leaving half an inch case. Mash and season removed cheese with horseradish, mustard, Worcestershire and salt to taste. Add enough beer to make a smooth paste and return to cheese shell. Serve in center of buffet on round revolving platter surrounded with varied crackers and small knife spreaders. This attractive dish does not look dilapidated when emptied as the red shell is still intact. Prepare two for a party of thirty. Any leftovers become a fine rarebit another day.

Quiche Tartlets

For thirty of these sophisticated tartlets prepare pastry from favorite recipe or use package pastry mix. Roll one package pastry mix to ⅛ inch thickness and cut into circles 3 inches in diameter. Cut 3 inch circles of heavy-duty aluminum foil; place pastry circles on top of foil rounds. With thumb and forefinger, turn up edge of foil and pastry ¾ inch all around; pinch in 4 or 5 places to hold up edge. Combine 1 beaten egg yolk with 2 tbsps. water; brush on inside of tart shells to prevent soggy crust. Sprinkle each with a bit of grated Swiss cheese: 1 cup (¼ lb.) in all.

To Prepare Quiche Filling: Combine 3 beaten eggs with 1 cup heavy cream and ½ cup dry wine with ½ tsp. salt, dash of white pepper and pinch of grated nutmeg. Beat just enough to mix thoroughly. Pour 1 tbsp. of mixture over cheese in each tartlet. Bake in hot oven (400 F.) 8 minutes; reduce heat to 350 F. and bake 10 minutes longer or until filling puffs up and is golden brown. Serve warm garnished with parsley. Bits of crisply fried bacon may be added to Swiss cheese before filling tartlets. For a head start, prepare foil circles in advance. Partially bake tartlets the day before but do not brown; refrigerate. To serve heat at 400 F. five minutes until golden brown. These may be eaten "out-of-hand" and go well with other finger foods such as what the French call "les crudites" a fabulous array of raw fresh vegetables: cauliflower sprigs, radishes, zucchini rounds, peeled strips of celery root, cherry tomatoes, raw mushroom caps filled with grated carrots or mashed smoked salmon. Have a bowl of seasoned salt for dipping. Mammoth ripe olives soaked in olive oil and garlic cloves, slashed, then drained add zest as do huge pimiento-stuffed green olives. Have a hot chafing dish of creamed fresh crab meat so plentiful and inexpensive right now to be served on halved hot biscuits. Forks will be required for this one hot offering but so delicious. Drinks of your choice include heated V-8 juice seasoned with a dash of curry powder. Serve in cups.

REVIEWS FOR YOUNG READERS

A delightful collection of stories from other lands is A BOOK OF WIZARDS, by Ruth Manning-Sanders. Wizards, in contrast with witches, often have a sense of humor. In this collection there are good wizards and bad ones, but even the bad ones are never quite clever enough to outwit good in the end. There is a charming Sicilian story of Aniello, where the wizards are outsmarted by a mouse; a Russian story, Kojata, tells of a wizard who finally has to give up because he cannot pass a church. There are 11 stories altogether which youngsters will enjoy.

"The scream of the poor is not always just; but if you do not listen to it, then you will never understand justice." This line is from a powerful new book THE LITTLE FISHES, by Erik Christian Haugaard, a novel for mature young readers. Set in wartime Naples, it is told through the eyes of 12-year-old Guido, a perceptive young beggar, who can say at the end, "It is understanding that makes the difference between us and the animals.

Local author Elizabeth Clemons has come up with a winner. WAVES; TIDES AND CURRENTS was chosen by the New York Times as one of the 75 best books of the year. It has photographs, maps, diagrams, and a clear text and deals with the causes and effects of the movements of the sea, giving special emphasis to the Atlantic and Pacific coasts of North America.

There is a host of charming picture books for the non-reading set. Some which merit special notice are the following: EVEN TINY ANTS MUST SLEEP, by Harold Saleh gaily pictures a variety of types of animals as they are finding a spot to sleep. It has short verses accompanying the illustrations, such as—Bumble bees spend all their time just buzzing round a flower; Sometimes they stop to take a nap for just about an hour.

Carl Sandburg's THE WEDDING PROCESSION OF THE RAG DOLL AND THE BROOM HANDLE is imaginatively illustrated and a delight to read. For a little poetry, try MOON, FOR WHAT DO YOU WAIT? These are poems by Tagore with illustrations by Ashley Bryan. Another one which features the moon is MOON MAN, where the man in the moon finally gets to earth, thinking he will have such fun, only to find that he is constantly being chased by someone. He returns to space, but his curiosity is satisfied. This is another good one by Tomi Ungerer.

'Christmas Carol' Tableau at Harrison

The Harrison Memorial Library will soon begin exhibiting a Christmas tableau made by Edyth Plamondon and given by her to the library a short time ago. The gift was one of two tableaux, the one a nativity scene and the other a scene from Dickens famous Christmas Carol. This year the library will have the Dickens tableau on display in the main reading room continuing until after New Year's Day.

Mrs. Plamondon's work is characterized by an exquisite attention to detail and complete authenticity. Each is furnished with its own necessary lighting and the base upon which it rests is four feet wide and nine feet long.

Both children and adults who have long known and loved the Christmas Carol will enjoy and appreciate this delightful scene from the story. It is the present plan of the library to display these tableaux at Christmas time on alternate years, this year the Christmas Carol, next year the Nativity scene.

Ruth Galvin Thornburg,
Chief Librarian.

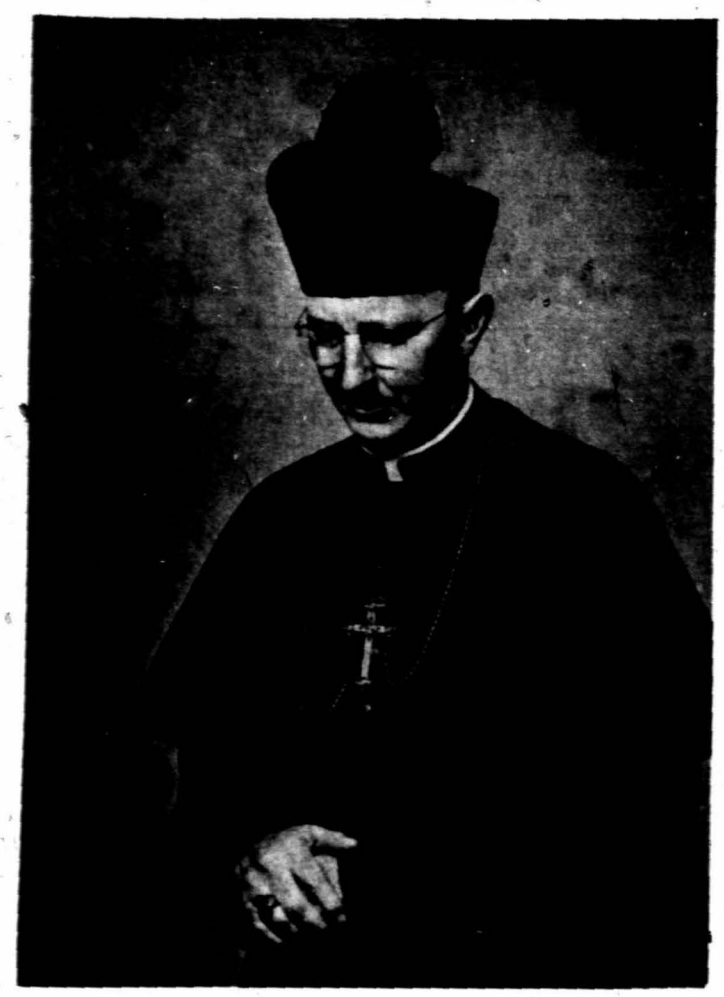
Celebration Of New Diocese At Carmel Mission



Bishop Harry A. Clinch

A colorful pageant took place at Carmel Mission Basilica this morning as Archbishop Raimondi, the Apostolic Delegate, and Cardinal McIntyre of Los Angeles led a long procession into the quaint old church. The procession included 30 bishops as well as other dignitaries of the Catholic Church.

Of these, eight bishop-ordinaries, two priests representing the senior and junior clergy of Monterey, as well as Archbishop Raimondi concelebrated the 11 o'clock Mass. Cardinal McIntyre presided at the vigil mass of San Carlos, patron of the Basilica.

The occasion was the celebration of the establishment of the new diocese of Monterey comprising four coast counties, of which Harry A. Clinch, D.D. will be head.

Music for the Mass was sung by the Paulist Choir of San Francisco.

Since about half of the church was reserved for clergy and the rest for certain dignitaries and lay people, a system of outside speakers was installed so that any number could hear the words of the address by Archbishop Raimondi and Bishop Clinch, as well as the music.

After the ceremony a luncheon was scheduled for the pavilion at the Monterey Fairgrounds. The large turnout was entertained by a Mariocci band.

Advent Vespers Service

On the evening of Tuesday, December 19, at 7:30 Community Church of the Montrey Peninsula is holding the second of its Advent Vespers Services in the church which is located 9/10ths of a mile up Carmel Valley Road.

Francesca Howe, soprano, will sing "Et Incarnatus Est (Mass in C Minor)" by Mozart, as well as other selections appropriate to the Christmas season. Mr. Warren Coker, talented local organist who has arranged this series of programs, will perform on the Walcker pipe organ.

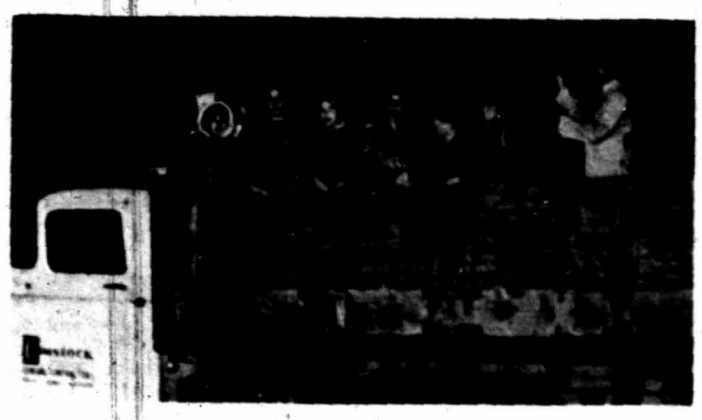
Following the service, refreshments will be served in the library. The public is invited without charge.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON

"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved By Atomic Force?" This is the subject of the Lesson Sermon to be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday.

"Ah Lord God! behold, thou has made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched out arm, and there is nothing too hard for thee." This verse from Jeremiah is the Golden Text.

Church of Wayfarer Caroling



The Children's Choir of Church of the Wayfarer, directed by Mrs. Carl Welchner, is seen caroling in downtown Carmel. The choir has recently made a LP monaural Christmas recording using a harpist, violinist, pianist and drummer boy, which may be ordered. The choir has been carolling a number of places such as the Community Hospital. The children will give their annual Christmas program in the church sanctuary on Sunday, December 17 at 4 p.m.

KERR to Broadcast Christmas Mass

History is being made on two fronts with the designation of Monterey as the diocesan headquarters of the Catholic Church in a four-county area, and with a Christmas midnight Mass being broadcast in multiplex stereo.

Most Rev. Bishop Harry A. Clinch, who heads the new diocese, has given permission to KERR-FM to broadcast the High Mass.

KERR Manager Bud Zimmerman said, "that to the best of his knowledge this is the first time that any Mass of this magnitude has been broadcast in stereophonic sound." Zimmerman, went on to say . . . "Through this broadcast this rite will come alive for many shut-ins who otherwise would be unable to attend the Mass."

Bishop Clinch, when approached by Zimmerman, was delighted that this unique broadcast is being made possible by KERR, and was more than enthusiastic over the service it would render Christians within listening distance.

KERR will broadcast from the almost-200-year-old San Carlos Church, in Monterey, on a frequency of 103.9 MC., on December 24th, starting at 11:30 p.m.

The National Automobile Club reminds all motorists to protect their valuables and Christmas parcels, they should always lock their car.

EUROPE IN THE AUTUMN

Christmas preparations have still not blotted out memories of the two-months' motor trip through Europe which Walter and Gladys McCloud completed recently.

They rented a Mercedes in Stuttgart, southern Germany and drove south through the Swiss lake country to Geneva where they met their daughter Susan.

After a weekend of exploring, they drove through the long Mont Blanc tunnel into Italy. This tunnel which is some ten miles long is quite an engineering feat. Started from both France and Italy, the two sides were only nine inches off when they met.

They followed the Italian Riviera down as far as Florence where they went to see what recovery had been made from the floods.

The glorious weather continued during their drive up to Salzburg and Innsbruck in Austria by way of Lucerne and Zurich in Switzerland. The music season was over but they watched one Tyrolean abend, native dancing and singing to zither music. Then they drove the "Romantic Road" passing castles and cathedrals through Bavaria to Wuerzburg.

At Ostende in Belgium, they boarded the ferry for Dover, England where Susan met them to drive them to London, where she has a job with the American government.

While headquartered in London, they drove down to Bath one weekend where they visited the old Roman baths built in 27 A.D., some of which are still functioning.

The following weekend they drove through the northern and western parts of England as far as Wales. They stopped for tea at the home of some friends in the country who were well aware of the tragic consequences of hoof and mouth disease in the cattle herds belonging to some of their neighbors.

Back to London and leave-taking from daughter Susan who, they are happy to say, will be home for Christmas.

Mrs. Toni V. Aery of Carmel greets her guests during the International Tea party given by the U.S. Officers Wives Club at the MAAG Officers' Club in Taipei, Taiwan last month. Some 900 Chinese ladies were invited to the party. Mrs. Aery came to Taipei with her officer husband six months ago. She likes the Chinese art and handicraft and said she was very much impressed by the collection of the Chinese National Palace Museum there.

Christmas Program Tonight Ends Year

Faculty, friends and students end the calendar year tonight with a program of songs, readings and musical selections to honor the Yule Season. The program, starting at 8:00 p.m., will include selections by the Glee Club, plus a special musical presentation by both the Octet and the Quartet. These groups are under the direction of Mr. Dyke Garrison, and in the Octet include Jim Booth, Pete Cowden, John Cann, Dan Robinson, Tim Donahoe, John Endes, Henry Bugbee and Jim Short. The Quartet is composed of Jody Kelly, Lloyd Taylor, Paul Saffo and Pat Marsten. Readings will be given by members of the Winston Churchill Forensic Cub under the supervision of Club President William Kondrat. The Brass Ensemble, under the guidance of Music Director Robert Peterson, includes Jim Holt, Jeff Kuhn, Ken Mahan, Allan Yeates, Ed Loescher, and faculty member, Mr. Dave Martula. Robert Howard will assist Mr. Peterson at the organ.

The traditional tree decorating ceremony took place this past Monday morning under the supervision of "Tree Committee" Chairman Bruce Burlington, with assistance from Dan Guistina, Craig Hill and Robert Lenci. Winners in the "best ornaent" contest were Arlene Chase, Bill Rawson and Jeff Smith (10th grade). Headmaster Ricklefs, in relating the history of the tree decoration tradition, told of the first program that was organized (and the idea of) by Mrs. Ricklefs and Mrs. Margaret Moody. Both faculty and students made ornaments and placed them on the tree.

Again, the campus has been decorated with boughs, ribbons and lights under the direction of Mrs. Betty Weaver, in addition to the individual efforts of boys in their own dorms and rooms.

Lars Svensgaard, with the help of the kitchen staff, provided refreshments and "cheer."

Sports: The basketball season keeps roaring on, with the Varsity taking Gonzales High 69-47, and the Frosh-Soph team winning 33-14, as the JV's almost made it a clean sweep, but dropped a tight one, 40-36. John Cann led the scoring with 26, followed by outstanding defensive performances by George Winters and Mike Greene and sub Dan Guistina. Coach Zury, besides praising the fine varsity victory, cited Dade Thieriot and Art Lara for good, floor play in the JV game that was close "all the way." Willis Cook starred in the Frosh-Soph win by sinking 9 points and defending the boards according to Coach A. J. Kinion.

Steepechase: A mid-winter sport, along with skiing, the team defeated the Defense Language School of the Presidio as Tom Brown had a great day taking first, with Joe Todd fifth in the first annual Junior High Cross Country championships at Seaside High School.

Well, next week we'll have the results of the speech tournament at Seaside High, where R.L.S. again showed strong with a third place, plus as a Christmas gift to our students, a report on the academic honors for the second grading period . . . the best ever in school history.

Library Adds New Section

In 1967 Harrison Memorial Library stepped into the relatively new role as a provider of reading materials for the blind and for people with impaired vision.

As a service to patrons with sight difficulties, there has been set aside a small section of the Carmel Library, bustling with activity where a collection of 200 large sized, large print books are housed. These books are extremely popular with young and old alike.

Recently the Harrison Memorial Library added braille books to their collection. Although limited in scope, the addition of these books brings another dimension to the service of the public library.

This initial collection of braille books is a gift from the Local Chapter: Braille Foundation, Incorporated of San Jose.

Tonkin Studies Hospital Costs

Thomas E. Tonkin of Carmel was called to a health care conference in Washington, D.C. by John W. Gardner, secretary of health, education and welfare.

Mr. Tonkin, administrator of Community Hospital of the Monterey Peninsula and national chairman of the Committee on Hospital Design and Construction of the American Hospital Association, flew to Washington last week.

Mr. Tonkin and nine other hospital administrators from throughout the nation conferred with 90 legislators, financiers, architects, engineers and builders on ways to improve health care and efficiency. They are exploring such things as ways of reducing the cost of building health care facilities.

MUSICAL COMMENTS

by Margot Hyatt

The Carmel Music Society presented an extremely well-acted and cleverly staged comic opera, Rossini's "The Barber of Seville", last Saturday evening. Jam-packed with Rossini's infectious melodies, hardly a moment passed when one was not listening to a familiar aria or tune, with which both singers and orchestra alike seemed to be having a glorious time. Produced by the San Francisco Opera and put on by the Western Opera Theater, a subsidiary group which takes opera into small cities which do not have easy access to opera, the production was just the right size for Sunset Auditorium.

The ingenious stage set designed by Robert Darling needed only the removal of three pieces to take us from the outside of Rosina's balcony in her guardian's Spanish home, to the inside of their living room. Tipped slightly toward the audience and raised a bit from the floor, it was much easier to see the action on this set than in most stage productions. Lighting was superb as was the use of color in both costumes and sets, making each scene a visual delight, and eighteenth century painting come to life.

Comic acting, in both voice and movement, was flawless, although there were some anachronisms in later scenes. While Figaro, played by Allan James Monk, was shaving Rosina's old guardian, played by Marvin Klebe, her suitor, the Count, played by Rico Serbo, disguised himself as her music teacher and proceeded to give her an exagerrated demonstration on the keyboard. In his black mask disguise and dazzling white teeth, he looked like Phil Silvers in horn rimmed glasses doing a comic routine. Delcina Stevenson too, shed her customary dignity to play the part of a comic housemaid, looking and acting more like a Southern mammy character than a Moorish servant. But this just added to the fun, as did the Lohengrin wedding march strains inserted by the orchestra into Rossini's score.

A rather large orchestra of young people was conducted in lively manner by Herbert Grossman. At times the male voices which were not very strong, did not make the hurdle. Carol Kirkpatrick, the star, who played the part of the beauteous Rosina, had the strongest voice. Although her tone was round, there was a quality of breathlessness which one wondered whether to attribute to love or inexperience. Delcina Stevenson's voice had an exquisite shell-like quality, but the part did not demand her full powers.

"The Barber of Seville" was a most enjoyable way of reviewing well-loved melodies.

OBITUARIES

Robert Cole, owner of Cole Studio Art Gallery, Carmel. Born in California in 1927. Survived by his wife, Marion, of Carmel, and his parents. Memorial service tomorrow at 2 at Church of the Wayfarer.

Sing Out America

The infectious rythms and inspiring words of songs by the international cast of Sing Out America brought audiences to their feet at the end of both performances at Sunset Theatre last week and kept them there for 15 minutes or so as listeners sang along and duplicated the hand gestures of their enthusiastic leaders.

The one disappointing note was the news next day that the electric guitars of the three lead musicians, Paul, Steve and Ralph Colwell, composers of many of the songs, had been stolen from the stage where they were left for safe keeping. The Fender guitars in cases along with accessory equipment, were valued at $500 each.

Part of the group left to keep an engagement elsewhere, while part of it stayed here for a week to catch up on studies. The students spend about five or six hours a day studying, according to Mr. Galyn Hammond, whose two sons are alumni of the group.

AN EAGLE IN TROOP 32!

At a touching Court of Honor ceremony held in the newly-repainted Boy Scout House on November 30, Scout Mark Neeson was awarded the Eagle Scout badge, an honor attained by less than one per cent of all Boy Scouts.

Standing at Mark's left as he received the honor was his mother, whose patient help made it possible for him to acquire 21 Merit Badges. On Mark's right, taking the place of his father who is flying for the United States at Saigon, was a family friend who lost his youngest son in Viet Nam at Easter. The ceremony was particularly moving for him as he recalled seeing his own two sons through Scouting.

Mark's mother was asked to pin the Eagle Scout pin on her son, and Mark then pinned a small replica of the Eagle Scout emblem on his mother.

Attending as representatives of the Carmel Rotary Club, which sponsers the Troop, were Merv Sutton and Ed Bissantz. The Scoutmaster, Commander Pelton, spoke with appreciation of the good work of the club's institutional representative, Merv Sutton, and of the growth and improvement of the troop. Commander Pelton believes that in two years the troop will be built up to its maximum strength and effectiveness, with greatly increased interest and participation of parents and the sponsoring Rotary Club.

Also presented were the three newly-elected Scout Patrol Leaders, who had received special leader training; and two Scouts received Merit and Second Class badges. The evening ended with refreshments featuring a large decorated cake for Eagle Scout Neeson, donated by Aage Knudsen.

ORDINANCE NO. 156 C. S.
AN ORDINANCE PERMITTING LIMITED MOTEL USE IN THE R-1 DISTRICT UNDER USE PERMIT

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA DOES ORDAIN as follows:

Section 1. MOTEL USE IN THE R-1 DISTRICT. The City recognizes that certain motel uses have existed for many years in the residential district of the City; that demands to eliminate said uses have been made in the past but that little formal action to abate them has been initiated; that it would be inequitable to abate said uses after subsequent purchasers have bought the properties at high prices based upon their use; that recent expansions of said motel uses have been noted by the City and the City desires to prohibit further expansion while maintaining the status quo; that it would be appropriate that this use be permitted in the areas in which they presently exist, providing there is no further expansion in either area or use and providing all use, remodelling, reconstruction and alterations shall be permitted on a conditional use permit basis, granted by the Board of Adjustments. In granting a permit for said use, the Board shall establish the extent as it existed on January 1, 1967, and no further expansion in area shall be permitted.

Upon adoption of this Ordinance, the Board shall issue use permits to all motels for which a permit may be issued.

Section 2. That Section 1305 of the Municipal Code is amended to read as follows:

1305. USE. The following uses only are permitted on each building site in District R-1:

One single family dwelling not to exceed two (2) accessory buildings; home occupations; public parks; public schools; horticulture and the rearing or the pasturing of animals or fowl as otherwise permitted by law; pergolas, fences and walls, no part of which are in excess of eight (8) feet in height and which are not otherwise prohibited by law; such signs as are in conformance with the sign regulations expressed in this article. Also the following conditional uses are permitted, provided that a use permit is granted by the Board of Adjustments pursuant to the provisions of Article 9 herein, namely, churches, private kindergartens, or private nursery schools, and motels, provided said motels were in existence prior to January 1, 1967.

Section 3. Section 1333 of the Municipal Code is amended by the addition of the following section:

(q.) To permit the use of building sites in the R-1 district for motels, are hereinafter defined, and to permit the reconstruction, remodelling or alteration of said motel use.

(1.) STANDARDS FOR USE PERMIT. The following specific standards, in addition to other standards as may be required elsewhere in Part X of this Code, shall be met before the issuance of any conditional use permit for motel use:

(i) PRIOR USE. That the use was in existence as a motel prior to January 1, 1967.

(ii) RESIDENTIAL CHARACTER. That all structures conform in design and bulk with the residential character of the surrounding area.

(iii) TAXES PAID. That all taxes due the City have been paid.

(2) PERMIT EXPIRATION. In the event any property granted a permit for motel use ceases to be used for a motel for the period of one (1) year, said permit shall terminate and the property shall be used only for single family residence as defined in this code.

(3) STANDARDS FOR AMENDMENT OF USE PERMIT. In order to reconstruct, remodel or alter, as hereinafter defined, the applicant must obtain an amendment to the above-mentioned use permit. The following specific standards, in addition to other standards as may be required elsewhere in Part X of this code, shall be met before said amendment shall become effective.

(i) GENERAL REGULATIONS. That the regulations applicable to the commercial district regarding design review, landscaping, signs, retaining walls and floodlighting shall be the minimum applicable to any motel use in the R-1 district, and more restrictive conditions may be imposed in granting said permit. This section shall only apply to alteration or remodelling if said alteration or remodelling affects the above listed activity.

(ii) SITE AREA. Upon reconstruction each site used for a permitted use shall have an area of not less than 1,500 square feet for each lodging unit. Any units added to said motel after the effective date of this ordinance shall have 1,500 square feet for each unit.

(iii) PARKING. That existing parking spaces shall not be reduced under any circumstances, and that if site coverage is reduced by elimination of any units, additional parking spaces shall be provided until there is one parking stall for each unit of the motel. Upon reconstruction or addition of any lodging units, there shall be one off-street, on-site parking space for each unit. An additional floor level for parking may be permitted by variance granted by the Board of Adjustments, providing said floor level and parking area is below official grade.

(iv) RESIDENTIAL CHARACTER. That all structures conform in design and bulk with the residential character of the surrounding area.

(v) UNITS. That lodging units per building shall not exceed ten (10).

(vi) BUILDING COVERAGE. That building coverage shall not exceed 35% of the building site.

(vii) HEIGHT AND SETBACK. That the reconstruction, remodelling or alteration of said motels shall be subject to the setback and height restrictions applicable to the R-1 district, as set forth in Sections 1305.3 and 1305.1 of this code.

(viii) AMENDMENT EXPIRATION. In the event any property is granted an amendment of said permit for reconstruction and said reconstruction is not commenced within one (1) year from the date of issuance of said permit, the amendment to the use permit for said motel use shall terminate.

(4) CONDITIONS. The Board of Adjustments may, in granting a permit for motel use in the R-1 district, or in granting an amendment of said permit for reconstruction, remodelling or alteration of a motel use, impose any condition cosistent with the standards set forth in this section.

Section 4. That Section 1380 of the Municipal Code is amended by the addition of the following three sections:

1380.44 RECONSTRUCTION. Replacement or rebuilding in any one twelve month period of a structure, the value of which exceeds 50% of the value of the structure prior to reconstruction or rebuilding.

1380.45 REMODELLING OR ALTERATION. The change in the design, floor plan or appearance of a structure, the value of which exceeds, in any one twleve month period, $4,000.00.

1380.28.1 MOTEL. A motel is any building or group of buildings on one site and under one ownership or one management containig four or more guest rooms intended or designed to be used, or which are used, rented or hired out to be occupied, or which are occupied for sleeping purposes by guests.

Section 5. This ordinance shall become effective thirty (30) days after its final passage and adoption.

ARE YOU "DISADVANTAGED"?
You are if you don't live where you can at least hear, walk to, or see the ocean in its fall-to-winter moods! Great crashing surf, storm driven, or pure white and bluer than blue under our bright winter sun.

NOW'S THE TIME TO TREAT YOURSELF to house-hunting on the ocean's edge. See an artist's home, oriental decor, with separate studio, sitting right on the rocky shore. It comes complete with fascinating year-round show of surf, sea, birds, whales, tide pools, for $99,500.

OR SEE A CONTEMPORARY HOME sitting right on the bank of the sea, with a heated swimming pool in a separate building. (You've already seen this one featured in national magazines). Price $147,500. Adjoining lot available with it at a higher price, if you have a friend you'd like to have next door.

IF YOU ARE SEEKING ABSOLUTE PERFECTION, let us show you the home where every feature is an exciting idea, the decorating is superb, and the west wall frames a living mural of the sea from Point Lobos to Pebble Beach. And a beach in your front yard, too. $150,000 and worth every penny!

Ocean front lots, too, at $32,500 and $35,000. Don't be "disadvantaged" any longer. When can you go looking?

KIOSKS . . . MAYBE

Directed by the Cultural Commission this month, Cole Weston was on hand at the Planning Commission meeting Wednesday to get the commissioners' attitude on the erection of kiosks in downtown Carmel.

The Planning Commission was agreeable to the idea but questioned the proposed positions offered by Weston. The Sunset manager also asked for a definite size restriction on the signs of tenants at the Center. The Design-Review board will study this question.

The Commission approved a "copper hood" on Zantman's store front; a new roof on the Fireplace Inn, new trim color and shutters on the Nielson Building and a new store front on the Salad Bowl, formerly Iris'.

They placed the application by the Carmel Presbyterian Church for a parking lot on the Abeyance Calendar because of the present off-street parking and traffic studies.

Final Drug Rules Adopted

The Carmel Unified School Board adopted final revision of its rules on the sale, use and possession of drugs by students by a 3-2 vote. Dr. Hilton Bialek dissented because he didn't think a local policy was necessary inasmuch as the State Education Code empowers both the school board and the district superintendent to suspend, exclude or expel students in violation at their discretion. Mr. Steven Sassoon dissented because he wanted the local policy to read "will," not "may" suspend, exclude or expel.

Board member Richard Wilsdon pointed out that not even the crime of murder has a mandatory penalty.

Lou Rudolph of Carmel Knolls felt that a statement of intent on the part of the board would be helpful, as did Superintendent Dr. Harris Taylor. Taylor spoke out against inflexibility, inasmuch as some students may respond to rehabilitation measures. Dr. William Lewis, neurosurgeon, said that a mandatory policy was not workable. He was not in favor of permissiveness, but he felt it was better to be reasonable if there were extenuating circumstances.

Final revision of board rules regarding the granting of high school diplomas to students who are no longer in school was adopted.

The board adopted revision of a code regarding teacher organizations, the main stipulation being that in the case of two or more, that they may be fractionalized to add up to no more than one representative on a negotiating council.

Second Reading of Sunset Ordinance

If you have wondered why there was no reference to the matter of rezoning Sunset Center in the report of last week's City Council meeting, it was because the Council adjourned before it reached that item on its agenda.

The matter is DEFINITELY ON the agenda for next Monday night's meeting and there is a chance the second reading of the proposed ordinance will be approved. If you have an interest, pro or con, you can attend this meeting which will begin at 8 p.m. at the City Hall.

According to the law governing such matters the Sunset rezoning ordinance must come before the City Council again and must get a second favorable vote before it can be adopted.

Between now and Monday evening, the Pine Cone encourages everyone interested to contact not one councilman but several, so that a more broad knowledge can be digested before speaking for or against the proposed ordinance.
